Mustoskiff Spanish season

By Pablo Arandia

Just a quick update and a call to everyone interested on racing and training at Spain this year.

Princes Sofia Trophy days: We decided to keep it as a training. It has been like this since seven years ago. This way we keep both the appeal of being on the water at the same time the race takes place, and the great function that this training had along the years, to teach newcomers among the great racers.

This year we are doing it from 7 to 10 April. It is run informal, we just meet at the S´Arenal sailing club to enjoy some sailing days and good food.

Eurocup: Due to poor participation numbers we decided to move the event to a better location. This year Eurosaf is doing a race at the C.A.R on the Mar Menor, Murcia. This regatta is done for high performance classes, and Mustoskiff has been invited. We need to reach good entry numbers in order to be admitted, so please, anyone interested contact us the sooner. Dates are 13 to 16 October.

More info about the race can be found at:

Also a number of races are taking place at Palma along this year.

We hope some of you would like to join. Any questions please write to mustoskiff@ono.com
